Teachers Get Pay Raise

Supt. of Schools J. G. Barry says he has not received full text of the bill passed by the Texas Legislature in its closing sessions, but that it is his understanding that all teachers, regardless of degrees held, will get a $399 across the board raise next year.

So far, Barry has about 10 vacancies in the school teaching staff. He has had several applicants for the band position and some for a coaching staff position to fill the resignations of Bob Lewis and James McDaniel.

His greatest worry is in finding teachers for the other positions — a high school Spanish instructor and at least 8 teachers for various classes in the lower grades. Barry said he would also like to add a high school speech teacher if he can find one.

QUENT LARSON JOINS HERALD STAFF

Quentin Larson, 35, is a new addition to the Hondo Anvil Herald staff. He is serving as production manager, and is now in the process of re-arranging equipment for the purpose of speeding and improving commercial printing production.

This is not the first time Larson has been in Hondo. He was a cadet at Hondo AFB during World War II, and was graduated as a navigator in 1944.

Born in South Dakota, he attended school in Minnesota. His first printing experience was at the age of 13, when he served as a "printer's devil" for a Minnesota weekly.

Air Marshal Sir Richard Atcherly, Group Captain D. L. Amlot and Wing Commander G. McKenzie of the Royal British Air Force were guests of Lt. Colonel George E. A. Reinburg, commander at Hondo Air Base, and Walter Gunstream, vice president and general manager of Texas Aviation Industries, Incorporated, on Tuesday, May 28.

The British dignitaries arrived in the United States aboard the new British jet, Comet. They were met at the Municipal Airport in San Antonio by Col. Reinburg, Gunstream and H. B. Zachary, president of TAI.

Sir Atcherly said he had brought his chief flying instructor and his director of flying training for the Air Ministry with him to visit the various schools "to study methods and procedures of training; in other words, to pick your brains and swap ideas."

"I feel almost like a naturalized citizen," chuckled the Air Marshal, "having been in the States so many times and having lived here for two years at one time."

This was Sir Atcherly's first visit to Hondo, although he has been in Texas before. He remarked of Texas, "The thing that amazes me about your state is the gigantic scale on which you do everything!"

They left Hondo Air Base Tuesday evening for a conducted tour of the Flying Training Air Force at Waco and other bases in the Southeastern United States.

GEN. DISOSWAY LEAVES FTAF FOR GERMANY

Headquarters USAF Announced today the reassignment of Major General Gabriel P. Disosway to Ramstein, Germany, as Commander of the 12th Air Force.

General Disosway, Commander of Flying Training Air Force since 1 September 1952, reported to the Waco Headquarters from Washington, D. C., where he served as Director of Training in the Office of DCS-P of Air Force Headquarters.

General Disosway's replacement as Commander of Flying Training Air Force will be Brigadier General Sam Maddox, Jr. of Mather AFB, California who has been in command at Mather since 1953. Mrs. Mather and their children will join General Mather prior to September 1. They will reside at James Connally Air Force Base in Waco.

VETERANS OBSERVE MAY 30

Four veterans organizations of Hondo joined forces Thursday, May 30, in observance of Memorial Day. They are Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3891, Punctured American Legion Post 524, Ollie Grant American Legion Post 901, and Hal Jones American Legion Post 128.

Following a parade in the afternoon through the downtown area, a program was scheduled for Memorial Plaza.

Master of ceremonies was Elmo Pope. The principal speaker scheduled to participate was Rev. R. W. Taitte who is Texas Department Chaplain of the American Legion. Cadets of the United States Air Force were to close the event with the sounding of taps.

Vacation School Begins At First Methodist

A Vacation Bible School sponsored by First Methodist Church is to begin Monday, June 3 and run through June 14, according to Mrs. Chester Heyen, chairman of the project.

There will be a place for all children from kindergarten age through Junior years. The school will operate from 9 till 11 Mondays through Fridays.

Rural Mail Boxes Need Improvement

Annual Rural Mail Box Improvement Program will be observed this year for a two week period beginning June 3, during which time patrons are requested to inspect their own boxes and make necessary improvements, according to Postmaster Harry Filleman.

On a recent inspection of the Hondo rural routes, made the early part of May, a number of boxes were found to be in poor condition with approaches impassable in wet weather. Names were missing, some boxes were without doors, and some were erected at an improper height.

In several instances, graded dirt was piled in front of the boxes, making it difficult for the postman to drive near the box to make delivery from the car.

During the two weeks in June, Postmaster Filleman urges that gravel be placed on muddy approaches to the mail boxes, weeds be cut down around the area, names be placed on the boxes and that old boxes without doors, etc, be replaced with new ones erected at the proper height.

NEVER TOO OLD — This little fellow didn't think the front row was close enough for a good look at the dancers featured in Mrs. Frank O'Neill's dance recital, recently so he ambled up close to the stage and watched intently. If the parents of this young burlesquer would like to have his picture, they can have it by calling at the Anvil Herald office.

OWL BAND NAMES MAJORETTES

Among the closing events at school this year was the selecting of next year's drum major and majorettes for the band and the yell leaders.

Roxene Schweers is to be the Owl band drum major and majorettes will be Graydene Rogers, Joylene Tilley, Carol Dee Parsons and Laura Meyer, the only newcomer to the list. These girls were picked on a basis of band votes and out-of-town judges.

Picked by the high school student body as head cheerleader for next year was Linda Tonore, the only under-graduate from the 1956-57 group. Others selected were Sara Moore, Myrna Britsch and Gienetta Sathoff.

High Ranking Seniors Plan Ahead

Miss Constance Schweers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Schweers, was named valedictorian of the Senior Class of Hondo High School. Barbara Ann Brucks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Brucks, was salutatorian and highest ranking boy was Henry Balzen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Balzen of Dunlay.

All three of these honor graduates are 18 years of age and all are planning to go on to college. Barbara and Henry plan to enter Texas Lutheran College in Seguin, but Connie is going to a business college in San Antonio.

Connie's sister, Monette, now a student at Sul Ross College, was valedictorian of the Class of '55.

Recreation Program Needs Help

The Summer Recreation Program will get under way Monday, June 10th for all school age children and young people. Tom Mosely will direct the program this year and a lot of interesting activity is planned. However, to do a more adequate job where the participants will get the most out of the program, volunteer help is needed.

The board of governors have only enough money to hire a director, but no assistants. The program is for young people. Adults, college and high school students with free time could do a fine service here.

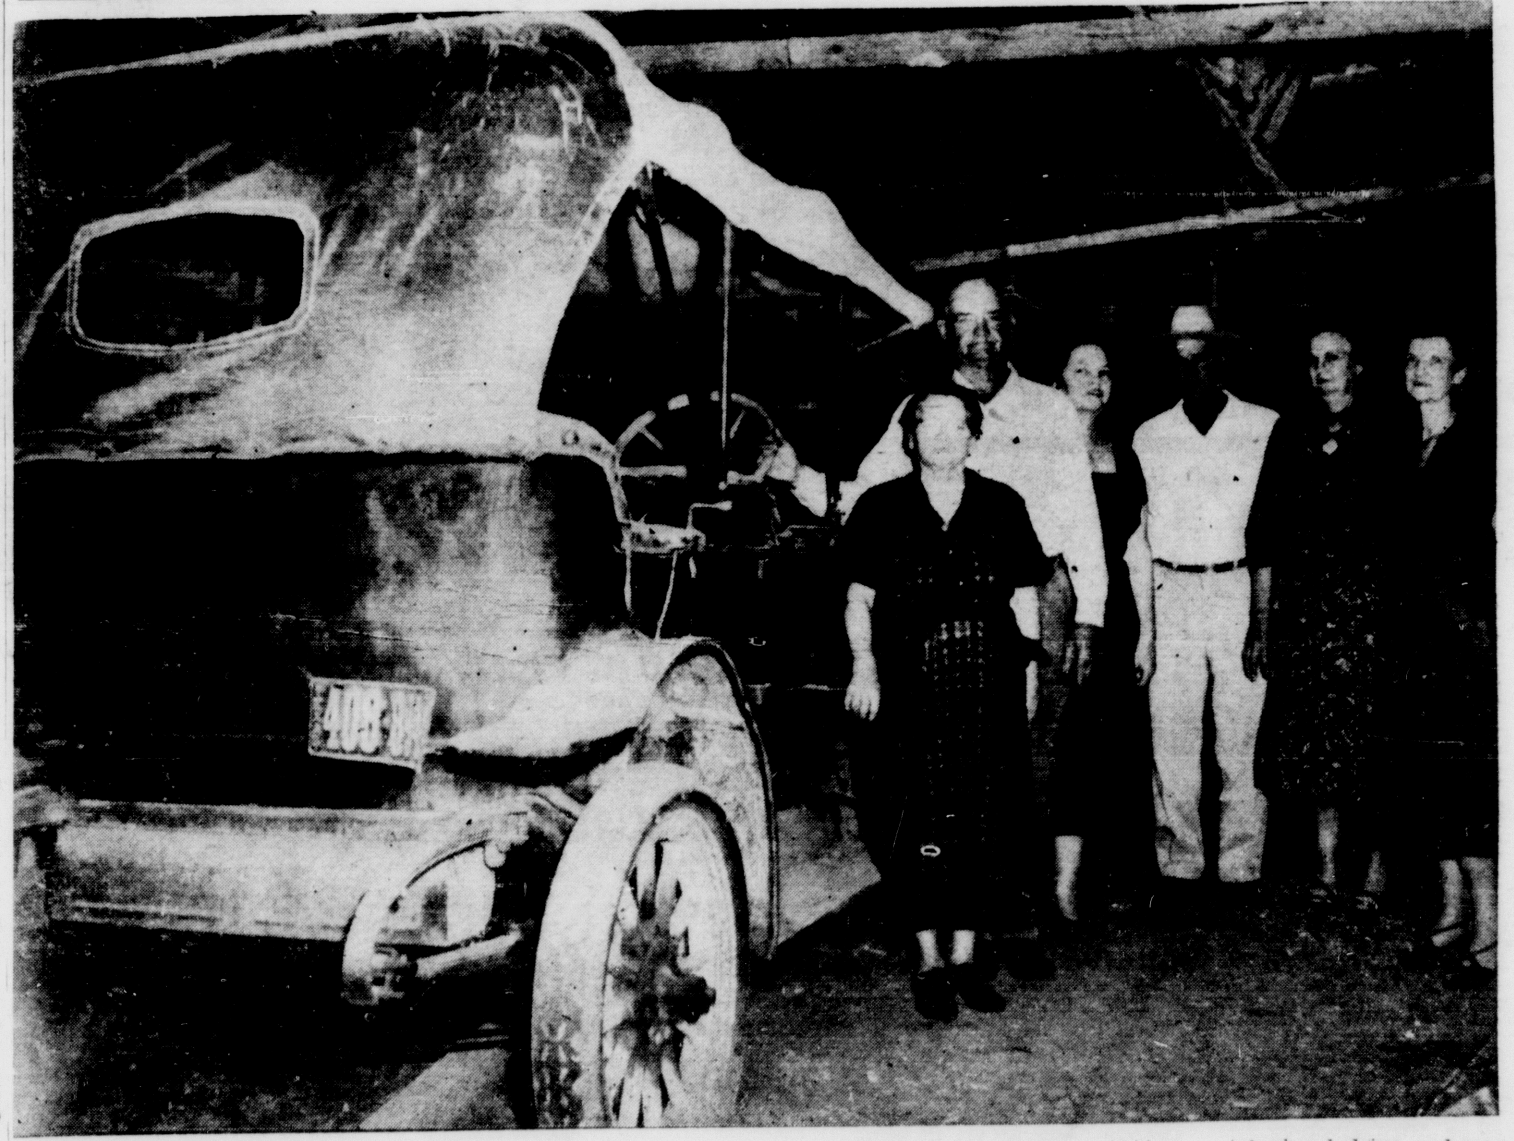

The program will be run Monday through Friday from 8 to 12. Those wishing to help should contact Tom Mosely at HA 6-3600.

Harold Conrad Receives Prized Saber

Harold Conrad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conrad of Devine, was named the recipient of the Gen. H. Miller Ainsworth Saber, presented annually to the outstanding Junior taking Military Science. This award was received during the Mother's Day ceremony at Texas A&M on May 12th.

Harold has been promoted to Company Commander of "A" Infantry for the 1957-58 term and was also elected president of the Southwest Texas Home-town Club.

Previously he was designated a distinguished Military Student, based on military proficiency as well as being a distinguished Student, based on scholastic achievement.

Seco Offers President A Little Advice On Farm Operations, Management

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has some advice for a well known farmer this week.

Dear editor:

I know that President Eisenhower, with the budget on his hands and the fate of the world hanging on the size of it, has no time to be worrying about farm problems, but a little matter has come to my attention which he ought to know about in advance.

According to an article I read in a newspaper last night, the manager of Ike's farm at Gettysburg said the farm isn't making any money right now because they aren't selling any of the cattle they're raising. They're keeping the calves to build up and improve the herd.

Well, now, I'll tell you. I guess all herds ought to be improved, probably the same thing goes for human beings too. If anybody can figure out how to do it, but just in case Ike is interested in the benefit of somebody else's experience, I'd like to point out to him it's possible to sell cattle and still not make any money on a farm.

I mean, just because he's not selling any calves off that Gettysburg farm, doesn't mean that's all that's keeping him from making a profit on it. I don't know anything about the financial details of the place, I have enough trouble keeping up with the financial details of this place out here, but I can tell Ike and his farm manager too that there have been years when I sold calves and lost money just the same.

That is, there's more to making money in the cattle business than just getting some calves ready for the auction ring, and it's possible to work all year with a bunch of cows, pouring feed to them in the winter, fighting bloat in the spring, doctoring them through the summer, and getting their calves safely born and up to market stage, only to find out when you get your check you ain't any better off financially than you were when you started. There are more cattlemen in this country who are richer in experience than cash.

I'm not saying Ike's farm wouldn't make any money if he sold his increase. I'm just saying that if he has any time left in between fighting for his budget and modernizing the Republic and dodging the Democrats, he ought to prepare himself and consider the possibility his farm may not show a profit, even after he sells some calves. It wouldn't be the first time for something like that to happen to a cattleman.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

FFA Boys Visit Ranch

Agriculture I and II classes of Hondo High School made a tour of the T-Cross cattle company feeding operation April 30, to study feeding techniques of the organization.

The group, 34 in number, left Hondo for the ranch, located 15 miles west of San Antonio on Highway 90 about 8 a.m. This large feeding operation is the only one of its kind near San Antonio and Hondo.

At the present time, T-Cross cattle company is feeding 3,500 head of cattle at one time. Highly mechanized, the feeding program requires seven men working the entire day carrying feed to animals in special-built trucks.

Silage is fed all animals throughout the feeding period and a mixed ration is fed in the same trough with the silage. All silage used in the feeding program is grown on the 800 acre irrigated field on the ranch. The company has five irrigation wells and five storage tanks from which they draw their irrigation waters.

Cattle are purchased when about 450 pounds and fed to the weight of 800 pounds before being sold on the San Antonio stock yards. Hereford, Shorthorn, Angus and Santa Gertrudis were in the lot, along with cross-bred stock.

Gets It In The Neck Again

MAGAZINE LAMBASTS FARMER

by JERRY JUNE BERGER

Life magazine came out with an editorial last week in which they lambasted the farmer of this country. Specifically they picked out the cotton farmer, but they implied that all farmers were taking advantage of the Government and thereby the taxpayers of America.

They told how farms nowadays are completely mechanized; how one farmer could do the work formerly done by several; how farmers in general are rolling in dough and continually have their hands out to the Government begging for more.

What they failed to tell was about the risk in farming. Our rural people can work for months and then have their entire crop wiped out in a few minutes by a cruel hail storm. And if he makes a crop, he does not know whether he will come out on the deal financially. He is unique in this respect for a car manufacturer in Detroit sets the price on his car and feels pretty sure he'll get the price. But a farmer could set his own price and sometimes see it rot before he'll have a buyer at what is sometimes only a break-even deal.

Yes, it is mighty easy for the editors of Life to sit up in New York in their air conditioned offices and tell the Government they can stop seeing that the farmer has a fair shake.

But they might not be so belligerent if they had to farm in Medina County for eight years — seeing their crop burn up for seven and then seeing it drowned out the eighth. Of course they would answer this with, "Well why don't they get off their farms and go to work somewhere else." To which we might ask; Just who would grow the crops necessary to feed the editors of Life in years to come if all farmers gave up hope?

Other Voices

"...Running a Paper Can Be Dismal..."

Sometimes running a newspaper can be downright dismal. Last week was no exception and all because we stick to our policy of printing the news.

Our courthouse column keeps us in hot water most of the time. People just don't like for their names to be printed when they come afoul of the law. They seem to forget that we don't make the news — we just print it!

Last week was the first time in our experience we were offered a bribe for keeping something out of the paper. Usually they figure they can scare it out. But last week a man who had been picked up by the highway patrol for a traffic violation offered a girl in the front office a pair of hose if she would leave his name out of the paper.

We printed it and she can buy her own hose. The hardest decision came as a result of a tearful relative who came in, to speak in behalf of a loved one who happened to be picked up on a traffic charge. Our sentimental side said to leave it out but our newspaper side said to print it. How can you make exceptions and remain fair and impartial?

But we want you to know this. The editor likes kids and dogs. He does not beat his wife or horses. He likes ice cream and Butterscotch pie. Some people even think he is a decent fellow. No matter how hard we try to run a good paper, we frequently go home at night saddened because we have to print unpleasant things.

But it's much easier to live with the knowledge that we are running our little paper as it should be run than to try and live with it knowing that we favor some at the expense of others.

We'd like to print just good news. But unfortunately, that isn't always the kind of news you make.

PERSONAL

APPEARANCE

By Jerry June Berger

One of the happiest of the Hondo High graduates Friday night was 17 year old GAIL KNAPP who has been staying with her aunt, MRS. VOLNEY BOON this year in order to attend school. Her dad, BRIG. GEN. J. A. KNAPP, flew in from Goose Bay, Labrador for the Commencement Exercises and his coming was a complete surprise to GAIL. Her aunt was in on the secret, but kept it from her fearing that some last minute change in plans might prevent his arriving for the big event.

GAIL, daughter of the former MARY EMMA FINGER of Hondo, has been quite a popular young lady in the one year she has been here. About July 1, she will join her parents, one baby brother, and three sisters in Omaha, Nebraska, where GEN. KNAPP will have his next assignment. She plans to attend college there.

And one Hondo High graduate received her diploma in absentia. She was MARY FRANCES ULBRICH MASSENA, now with her husband in Germany. She completed requirements for the diploma in January, leaving Hondo shortly after that time. Her dad, JEAN ULBRICH, accepted it for her Friday night. The Seniors left Monday morning on their annual trip to Carlsbad, getting off about 3 a.m.

In the entire five years of his life young JIMMY BOHLEN of Dunlap has never seen things so green before. After all, there's been a drought here for the past seven, so this new look is a little disturbing.

The other day he was driving past his granddad's green field and having never seen it look anything but brown before commented, "Well, Grandpa BREITEN'S place certainly is a big mess this year." He is the son of the HAROLD BOHLENS and "grandpa" is ALFRED BREITEN.

Hondo kids have gotten acquainted with some new animal life as a result of the rains. Just about every youngster in town was nurturing a jar or two, or three, of tadpoles. Now they are having fun with all the baby frogs around. It is no longer a surprise to find them being carried around in small hands.

As a matter of fact some kids carry other kinds of wild life around with them. MRS. L. E. (HEDWIG) KOLLMAN was telling us not long ago that she had taken KAREN GOODING for a ride one afternoon and the latter said, "Bet you don't know what I have in my billfold." HEDWIG couldn't guess, so KAREN told her — a lizard, but when the driver expressed some doubt and asked to see, the young miss opened her billfold and sure enough there really was one stretched out inside.

KAREN, daughter of the IRVIN GOODINGS, also likes horned toads and at the present time is trying to raise a baby bird that she found out-of-doors. When we saw it, it hadn't even feathered out yet.

PA

MRS. O. A. FLY was telling some friends Saturday morning that she and her husband would be observing their fortieth wedding anniversary this week, then jokingly added, "Of course all of you know I was a child bride which explains how that 40 years is possible at my age!"

It's a fact though that many Hondoans younger in years would have a time keeping up with all the activities she does. And when she isn't off on some out-of-town church mission she is usually being followed, quite closely, by one or two grandchildren.

It is always a delight to mention happily married couples like the FLYS, especially in this day and time when the story of an International romance of a married Italian movie director and a married (to somebody else) Indian model occupied the top spot position on the front page of the Express Sunday. The Light used the story, but at least had it on an inside page. Only a short time ago, the Italian's wife, a famous actress, flew to New York and told newsmen that she had "no regrets" about her life. With this new turn of events wonder if she can still say that?

Apparently our standards of behavior have changed greatly when, after all the scandal in which she has been involved, Americans still look upon her as a first-rate actress, present her with awards to prove it, and thereby have our youth look upon her as an ideal and someone to mimic.

QUOTES SOME EXCERPTS FROM A MISSISSIPPI EDITOR'S
COMMENTS ON THE NEW PARTY

After attending the recent convention of promoters of the new Constitution party in his state, Editor J. O. Emmerich of the McComb Enterprise Journal, wrote a lengthy comment from which we quote the following as being deserving of careful thought:

During the first 158 years of our federal government's existence the total of all federal expenditures was $406 billions. During the past seven years the total expenditures of our federal government amounted to more than $433 billions — a greater total of spending in seven years than in the previous 158 years. The members of the Congress of Freedom are fearful of this condition. They eye the national debt, the greatest in world history, and recognize the apathy with which it is considered. They note the federalization of agriculture in the Nation and the efforts to federalize education. They have observed the increasing tempo of the trend toward state socialism in the United States and the efforts to create a welfare state. They have recognized that the United States is spending billions of dollars outside of the United States to thwart world communism and its kindred thinking and simultaneously seen billions of dollars being expended within the United States to create state socialism. They have observed the trend toward world government and the fact that the current budget of the United States is the greatest of any year in history.

Because of the recognition of these perilous things and the general opposition to the principles by which the United States was founded, the Congress of Freedom, is seeking to arouse the American people to action. Unquestionably the people have abundant evidence to prove that the United States is steering into dangerous waters. Agriculture today is no longer a calling pursued by independent men. The idea of "independent farmers" is a thing of the past. A few farmers are willing to stand up and be counted. But the fact stands out indisputably that the farmers of America have been bought off. They have been purchased just like the cotton and hogs they once sold in an independent market. The same governmental trend is reflected in the field of Labor where the government is seeking to strengthen the cause of bureaucracy at the expense of independent laboring people. The field of education is being invaded. Ahead may be a complete federalization of education with the inevitable indoctrination which would follow should the federal government gain control.

The once sovereign states are no longer sovereign states. There are bills pending before Congress which would eliminate trial by jury. It is time that Americans generally awaken to what is happening in the United States.

Texas Tornado Time Brings Safety Rules

It's that time again! Yes it's tornado time in Texas and the Anvil Herald is publishing a list of safety rules below. To know what to do when a warning is received, or a tornado is observed, may mean the difference between life and death for you.

There is no universal protection against tornadoes except caves or underground excavations. When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave, or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas, or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel.

In Open Country

1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.
2. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

In City or Town

1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a steel reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS!
2. In homes: The southwest corner of the lowest floor or in the basement offers greatest safety. People living in brick or stone houses should seek other shelter, preferably in a storm cellar or the basement of a frame house. If time permits, electricity and fuel lines should be shut off. Windows on the north and east sides of the house may also be opened to help reduce damage to the building.

3. Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.
4. In city areas: Especially if school building is of good steel reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on a lower floor. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS!
5. In rural districts - remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

In Factories

On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for shutting off electrical circuits and fuel lines if the tornado approaches the plant. Workers should be moved to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

Keep calm! It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case".

Keep tuned to your radio station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.

proposes to exercise the powers and functions provided in method 3 of the statute which has been codified as Article 7880-90a.

VIII. That the general nature of the work to be done is the construction, installation, maintenance and operation of a Waterworks System. However, this brief statement of the nature of the work to be done is not intended to exclude or prevent the containment and operation of such additional lawful improvements as occasion may require at some future time.

IX. That a necessity exists for the organization of such District, to provide for the construction, installation, maintenance and operation of such Waterworks System, so as to promote and protect the purity and sanitary condition of the State's waters and the public health and welfare of the community.

X. That said project is practicable and feasible, due to the availability of water and the nature of the soil and contour of the land, and will serve and be a benefit to all the land within said District, and will be a public benefit and utility.

XI. That petitioners have secured the services of WAYNE D. TINNER COMPANY, in estimating the costs of such project, and upon the basis of the estimates of such engineers, represent that such project will cost approximately ONE HUNDRED TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($125,000), more or less. That upon such estimates, plans, specifications and advice of and from said consulting engineers, petitioners represent that a complete waterworks system within said District may be installed and constructed for the costs set out hereinbefore, and will at the hearing herein requested demonstrate to the Court the purpose, utility, feasibility, need and necessity for the District in reasonable detail and definiteness.

WHEREFORE YOUR petitioners respectfully pray that this petition be set down for hearing, as provided by law, and that a date be fixed for such hearing, and that notice of such hearing be given, as provided by law, and that such hearing be held and thereupon this petition be in all things granted, and that the proposed Water Control and Improvement District be created and that directors of said District be appointed, as provided by law; and your petitioners hereby further pray for all other and further matters and relief and orders necessary and appropriate in the premises, to which they may be entitled, even though not herein specifically mentioned.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED, this 22 day of April, 1957.

AND IT APPEARING that said petition is signed by more than fifty (50) land owners in the proposed District, and that said petition has been filed by the County Clerk of Medina County, and recorded in a book kept for that purpose in the office of said County Clerk, and that it is in due form and for lawful purposes as provided by Section 59 of Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, and statutes enacted pursuant thereto, and that said petition should be heard by the Commissioners' Court of Medina County, Texas;

ROTHE, in my official capacity as County Judge of said County, and as authorized by Article 7880-14 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, DO HEREBY ORDER that said petition be and the same is hereby set down for hearing before the Commissioners' Court in the courtroom thereof in the Courthouse in the City of Hondo, Texas, at 2:30 o'clock p.m., on the 10 day of June, 1957.

Upon such hearing any persons whose land is included or would be affected by the creation of such district may appear and contest the creation of such district and may offer testimony to show that such district is or is not necessary, would or would not be a public utility, and would or would not be feasible and practicable. Also any interested person may appear at such hearing and offer testimony with reference thereto.

The County Clerk of this County shall issue a notice of said hearing, which notice shall contain a statement of the nature and purpose thereof, the date and time and place of hearing. This Week --In Washington

By Clinton Davidson
One of the odd things in Washington is the different viewpoints Congress and the White House take on the "Communist situation." It worries both, but for different reasons.

Congress likes to ferret out communists in this country and bring them up before investigating committees, where they invariably hide behind the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution.

The Administration takes a dim view of the hide-and-go-seek game the lawmakers play. The President thinks Congress is wasting its time when it ought to be paying more attention to such far-away places as the Far East, the Near East, Africa and Eastern Europe.

It is becoming more and more difficult for Mr. Eisenhower to get as much foreign aid out of Congress as he would like. And, every time there is talk about cutting the defense budget he calls a group of Congressmen to the White House to lecture them.

The explanation of those differences may not be hard to find. The President assumes that the FBI already knows who the communists are in this country and is watching them. Recently some Congressmen have been poking around odd places in the world and gathering their own information.

One of those is Rep. Jamie L. Whitten of Mississippi, a veteran of the important House Appropriations Committee. He spent two weeks back of the Iron Curtain, as he says, strictly a tourist, going wherever he wished and talking with whomever he pleased.

Some of the things he observed and reported give you a pretty good idea of why not all congressmen roll over and play dead when somebody shouts "the communists are coming." By no stretch of the imagination could you call Whitten a pro-communist, either before or after his Russian tour.

"Frankly," he told us, "we were greatly surprised at many of the things we found. Also, we were surprised at the friendliness of the people toward the United States. In Russia, of course, they are not the government."

"The Soviet Union is largely a 19th century group of republics attempting to compete in a 20th century world. It is a nation of dirt roads, 35 mile-per-hour trains, few railroads, poor communications, and horse-and-buggy transportation."

"There are a few show-places built to impress Western visitors, but in most things it is a backward nation as compared with the United States. The efficiency in agriculture, and in most light industry, is at least 50 years behind the U. S."

"A disproportionately large amount of farm work is hand labor, and half or more is performed by women. There is very little light, power machinery. In cities we saw innumerable middle-aged and older women with home-made brooms, sweeping leaves from the sidewalk, one by one, as they fell."

Whitten found that the Russian people do not seem dissatisfied with their life under the present regime, but neither do they appear enthusiastic in their support. "It appears," he said, "that their present system is generally satisfactory to them, since it is no worse than they've been accustomed to through the centuries."

Russia's greatest weakness, Whitten concluded, is its backward and inefficient agriculture, and lack of transportation. Practically all of the farm land is north of 40 degrees latitude, the same latitude as northern Minnesota. Roads are impassable much of the year.

Whatever the ambitions and intentions of the Russian rulers are, the country certainly could not sustain a long war, Whitten declared.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

AUSTIN, Tex. — Officially, Texas' 55th Legislature now is in the history books. But the real story comes within the next few months when hundreds of new laws take effect.

They'll change people's lives a little bit or a lot. Voter reaction to these changes will provide grist for the 56th session and determine how many 55th legislators will survive for the 56th.

Biggest issues of the past five months were water, segregation, reform measures, teacher pay and insurance. Here's what the lawmakers did:

WATER
Passed a proposed constitutional amendment for a $200,000,000 bond issue to help local governments build dams and reservoirs. Failed, despite frantic last-minute efforts, to pass another amendment for a $100,000,000 bond issue to buy water storage space in federal reservoirs.

Passed two of eight segregation bills. One allows local school boards to assign pupils to certain schools; other requires local option election before schools can be integrated.

Another, requiring registration of groups advocating integration or segregation, was declared unconstitutional by the attorney general. He said it would violate freedom of speech and press. Other House-passed bills died on the vine after repeated Senate filibusters made it apparent it would take all summer to get them through.

OFFICIAL REFORM
Passed a code of ethics bill prohibiting state officials and employees from engaging in outside activity "in conflict with the public interest." A sprinkling of officials already have filed statements of their private interest with the secretary of state as stipulated in the law. A lobbyist registration bill died when the House and Senate couldn't iron out differences. A host of others proposed as reforms were ditched earlier.

TEACHER PAY
Legislators, with Gov. Price Daniel's help, found, after raking and scraping, enough money to give each public school teacher a $399 a year raise. It meant recalling two other money bills, one to pay off some old bonds and one to refund taxes paid under an unconstitutional law. Situation was tense when Comptroller Robert S. Calvert first ruled the state's kitty was $13,000,000 short of enough to cover.

INSURANCE
Passed a host of laws bringing a whole new system headed by new men into the battle-scarred Insurance Commission. Deadlock over a full-time or part-time board was finally comprised with a full-time board for one year, part-time thereafter. Policy-making board members will get $15,000 a year when working full time. Added to set up will be a full-time $30,000-a-year Commissioner of Insurance who will be top administrator.

Stemming mostly from the multi-million-dollar ICT and US Trust failures, several other bills were passed placing stricter requirements and limitations on insurance company officials. However, the Legislators fell flat on their faces when it came to requiring publication of financial statements by insurance companies. The bill never got out of the House Committee on Insurance. So only those companies that want the public to know will print them.

AND THESE, TOO
Aside from the big issues, scores of not-so-major laws will cause Texans to change their way of doing things. Here are a few:

A "Scratched Ballot" is the only legal way to vote in future elections. No more choice between scratching and checking.

Texas Woman's University at Denton, once Texas State College for Women and before that, CIA, will be the nation's first in that category. Women have a right to change their minds, reasoned solons. Besides, there were hundreds of cute little coeds around, 'allobyin'.

State Judges, both district and appellate, will get raises of about $3,000 a year apiece.

City Officials can be elected for four instead of two years if voters okay a proposed constitutional amendment. Individual cities would then have to adopt the four-year plan.

Flooded Lampasas and wind-swept Silverton will get $40,000 to help rebuild public property under an emergency bill.

Price Daniel Family will get a better roof over its head. Money was authorized to repair the Mansion ceiling that collapsed recently, just missing the governor.

Texas archives will get a brand new building, shunting of historical documents from barns to basements had brought huts in past years had brought a hue and cry from civic groups.

Auto license tags will cost 10 per cent more. Highway Department is to use the extra funds to share 50-50 with cities and counties, the cost of right-of-way for new roads. Previously cities and counties have had to bear all land costs.

Governor's signature is still pending on many bills, of course, but vetoes are not expected on any of the above.

In addition, this legislature, as others, passed literally hundreds of "local and uncontested" bills. These are ground out in batches, usually without anyone but the author knowing what they do or why.

Future office-seekers will have a new force to reckon with — the Democrats of Texas.

D.O.T., a new name for the old Liberal-Loyalist wing of the party, has set itself two goals — to gain control of the party machinery in Texas and to put its adherents in control of state government.

Some 1,500 delegates from 106 counties attended the organizing rally in Austin, Mrs. R. D. Randolph of Houston, Texas' liberal-minded national committee woman, was named leader, New U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough flew down from Washington to speak.

D.O.T. is frowned on by Governor Daniel and Executive Committee Chairman Jim Lindsey. D.O.T. charges them with "usurping" party control at the Fort Worth convention.

SHORT SNORTS
Texas Railroad Commission has cut the June oil allowance to 3,434,618 barrels a day on a 15-day producing pattern. It's a big come-down from March's all-time high — 3,733,054 on an 18-day pattern. Sen. Carlos Ashley of Llano will be president pro tempore of the Senate for the interval between sessions. He succeeds Sen. Otis Lock of Lufkin. Before adjourning, the Senate confirmed three appointments by Governor Daniel to the Texas Prison Board. They are Lewis Nordyke of Amarillo, Jack Vaughn of Dallas, and J. M. Windham of Livingston. Appointed and confirmed for the State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools are George W. Pirtle of Tyler, French Robertson of Abilene, Nat Goldsmith of San Antonio and Howard Tellepsen of Houston. James D. Sartwell of Houston goes on the Board of Public Welfare.

Deaths

WILLIAM N. FORBES, SR.
Funeral services for William Norris Forbes, Sr., 88, were held Saturday in Community Presbyterian Church, with the Reverend T. R. Elder officiating. Death came quietly about the noon hour on May 23, 1957 in a San Antonio hospital where he had been for several days.

Mr. Forbes was one of Natalia's most respected citizens, and, in spite of his advanced years, was an active pharmacist. He received his license as a pharmacist from the State Board in Austin June 10, 1907.

Born in Toronto, Canada on August 3, 1869 to Harry and Henrietta Forbes, he came to the United States in young manhood and soon became interested in pharmaceutical products. He went on the road for Parke, Davis and Company, pioneering much of the territory in Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. The letter of retirement given him twenty-nine years later on March 1, 1929 referred to Mr. Forbes as their master salesman.

He was married to Henrietta Schwartz of Hallettsville, Texas on August 7, 1912. They had two children, Mrs. V. T. Jackson, Sr., of New Orleans, La., and William N. Forbes, Jr., of Natalia.

Other survivors are two sisters, two nephews, four grand-children and nine great-grand-children.

Mr. Forbes was a member of the Presbyterian Church and a past member of the Lions Club. Pallbearers were Ruble Farmer, Clyde Sparks, C. F. Fabish, B. C. McDonald, E. D. Shoemaker, Wayland Day, Dan Turner and Harvey Bradley.

Honorary pallbearers were Murray Young, Alva Miller, Ralph Bruebeck, E. H. Whittington, C. M. Maney, Dan Stoy, Clyde Day, Frank Flugge, and Ben Hill.

Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

MRS. MELINDA BALZEN
Funeral services were held May 19, 1957, for Melinda Balzen, 66.

A resident of Hondo for the past 14 years, Mrs. Balzen was born in the New Fountain community July 7, 1890, the daughter of Folkert Saathoff and his wife Regina. On Jan. 24 of this year, Mrs. Balzen entered a Galveston hospital for treatment and then returned to Medina Hospital where she remained until Feb. 10, when she returned to her home. She died at her home May 18, 1957, at 1:35 a.m.

Survivors, besides her husband, include five brothers, Henry of Yancey, Fritz and Frank of Hondo, Louis of Dunlay and Emil of Quihi; two sisters Mrs. Charles Oefinger of Quihi, and Mrs. A. L. Brucks of San Antonio. One brother, John, and two sisters, Mrs. Hy Kueck and Mrs. H. A. Rolff, preceded her in death.

Services were held from the Horger Funeral Home with Rev. W. L. Hornung officiating. Pallbearers were Walter Saathoff, Elden Saathoff, Roland Saathoff, Clifford Saathoff, Hugo Saathoff Jr. and Sterling Brucks.

D'Hanis Continues To Lead The Field

The D'Hanis Pirates continue to lead the league with a well contested win over the Castroville Indians who lost their scalps in a 3 to 1 score Sunday at Castroville.

H. Wolf stopped the Castroville Indians giving up only four hits and one run. Wolf pitched the entire game giving up four hits, five bases on balls and one run. The infield gave him good backing with two double plays and only one bobbie. H. Langfeld, Huser and B. Koch supplied the necessary batting punch with Langfeld slugging in a long homer.

The Indians left seven on the bases as they failed to get the hit when needed. B. Tschirhart was two for four including a long homer over the left field fence. E. Tschirhart deserved a better fate as he pitched well enough to win most Hi-way 90 games.

D'Hanis plays LaCoste in LaCoste, Sunday.

CLINT HARTUNG

Hondo Hurricane's Change Up Is Good

Clint Hartung Going Strong

By Nonnie Jennings.
A few Hondo fans got a treat, and a touch of nostalgia, last week when they went to Lackland AFB to see the strong Plymouth Oilers of Sinton, managed by Clint Hartung, play the Lackland Flyers. Clint was a picture of his old self when as a high school pitcher in '38, '39, '40 and '41 he would set the strong

San Antonio service teams on their ear. It seemed incredible that he could look even more impressive in 1957.

Big Clint, often referred to as the Hondo Hurricane in his widely publicized career, is the backbone of the Oilers and not only takes his turn on the mound, but plays outfield and is the team manager. Clint took the managerial role as a temporary assignment but it may turn out to be permanent.

Clint took the mound for a five inning stint and those who have seen him throughout his career agreed that Big Floppy was still plenty baseball player. His fast ball seemed as fast as ever as it zipped in with a lot of hop — and on a few occasions was a fast ball that would bend into a right handed hitter or change up, which he has mastered since high school days, was near perfect although 2 of the 3 hits he gave up were off the change up. Both hits were fluke infield hits that had the batter completely off balance...the ball spun around in the grass too long to make the put out at first base.

That Clint Hartung has lots of high caliber pro-baseball left in him is obvious.
